

Sprinkler group elects Freehold man

Kent Mezaros of Freehold, chief executive officer of Quick Response Fire Protection in Manalapan, was elected to the board of directors of the National Fire Sprinkler Association. He will represent the interests of contractors and the fire sprinkler industry for states in the Area II Mid-Atlantic Region.

Mezaros has been acting chairman for the National Fire Sprinkler Association's New Jersey Chapter and the state Fire Sprinkler Advisory Board.

